Details for the day

The Chelmsford Ballet Company is delighted to be staging let's make a ballet. Details regarding parking and arrival information will be distributed nearer the time. Please be sure to bring everything you think you will need for a normal ballet class. All participants are required to provide their own lunch and refreshments, NO nuts due to dancers with allergies.

Please ensure that the following rules are observed.

- Girls should wear ballet tights/socks and leotards. Please bring ballet tights for the performance (including spare ones if possible). Please also ensure that your child has appropriate underwear, either white or flesh coloured please as they will be changing into costumes for their performance. Long hair should be tied in a bun and short hair should be fastened back from the face. Please make sure that you have plenty of hair grips, clips, bun nets / hair nets, hairspray etc. No jewellery, watches or fitbits are to be worn.
- Boys should wear their ballet school uniform.
- The dressing room should be kept tidy.
- Registration starts at 9.45am. Once you have registered, you will then be shown to the dressing room by the helpers. The workshop starts at 10am and should finish at approximately 6pm after the second performance.
- All participants will take part in both performances.
- Due to the large number of children taking part we would be grateful if you could attend the performance specified on the day.
- All participants take part in the auditions at their own risk. Neither The Chelmsford Ballet Company nor its representatives, accepts any responsibility for damage to, or loss of personal property. As far as the Chelmsford Ballet Company is aware all tutors are suitably qualified and therefore responsibility for any injury sustained, however caused, is entirely the participants.
- The Chelmsford Ballet Company will not tolerate or accept irresponsible behavior from any dancer, politeness & general consideration for others is expected. If necessary the committee will act accordingly if this is not adhered to, and remove the dancer from the session. Contact will be made with the parent / guardian to collect their dancer. Please speak to your dancer about these rules as we expect them to be polite to others at all times.

We hope that you will thoroughly enjoy it.
